At their May 13 meeting, the Planning Commission formed a sub-committee to develop a clear written rationale for building heights recommended in the draft Pike Plan. The sub-committee, with members of the Planning Commission, will meet for the first time in the Red Maple Conference Room at City Hall at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, May 22. The public is welcome to attend.

Maryland law and the Planning Commission's Rules of Procedure regarding ex parte (extra-record) communications require all discussion, review, and consideration of the Commission's business take place only during the Commission's consideration of the item at a scheduled meeting. Telephone calls and meetings with Commission members in advance of the meeting are not permitted. Written communications will be directed to appropriate staff members for response and included in briefing materials for all members of the Commission.
